

With sunshine in your heart

With sunshine in your heart,
whether it storm or snow,
whether clouds fill the heavens,
the world fill with quarrels ...
with sunshine in your heart,
then come what may:
light will shine forth
from the darkest of days!

With a song on your lips
and a cheerful tone
if the workaday rush
should worry you ...
with a song on your lips,
then come what may:
help will find its way to you on the loneliest of days!

With a word for others
in anguish and sorrow,
say to him what left you
in such good cheer:
with a song on your lips,
never lose courage,
with sunshine in your heart,
all will be fine!

Cäsar Fleischlen

In Englisch von Robert Cardinaux: